

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT IN AND FOR ESCAMBIA COUNTY, FLORIDA

DEEPGULF, INC. and TOKE OIL AND GAS, S.A.

Plaintiffs,

vs.

MARC M. MOSZKOWSKI

Defendant.

Case No.: 2018 CA 000543

Division: "E

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SUPPLEMENT HIS MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION WITH NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE

COMES NOW Defendant, Marc Moszkowski, Pro-Se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for leave to supplement his Motion for Reconsideration with newly discovered evidence, and in support thereof states as follows:

On March 13th, 2025, Defendant filed a Motion for Reconsideration.

As stated in the Motion for Reconsideration, Plaintiff has asserted the following declarations in his various pleadings and affidavits:

1. First that Defendant "was removed completely from the Board of Directors on July 7, 2020";
2. Then that "[s]ince the formation of DeepGulf, Inc. to the present date, Marc M. Moszkowski has been a director of Deep Gulf, Inc.";

3. And finally that "[d]uring all times pertinent to this case Defendant has been and still is a director".

Defendant had vigorously questioned in his Motion the self-contradicting nature of these statements.

Further, a few days after filing his Motion, Defendant discovered official records from the "Florida Department of State Division of Corporations", which confirm that Defendant was indeed removed as a Director in 2021.

The newly obtained evidence is attached as Exhibit "AB" (bookmarked PDF document).

The records can be found online by searching by Name for DEEPGULF, INC. on the server of the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations at: <https://dos.fl.gov/sunbiz/search/>,

The records also show that in the first 12 years since the incorporation of DeepGulf, Inc., Plaintiff had reported the number and identities of the Directors incorrectly, and perhaps deceptively.

The evidence is material and relevant, as it directly contradicts the recent statements made by Plaintiff in their pleadings and affidavits.

Allowing supplementation will serve the interests of justice and ensure that the Court has an accurate factual record.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant leave to supplement the record with the attached evidence and grant any other relief deemed just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of March, 2025

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that, on this 18th day of March, 2025, a copy of this motion has been furnished to Braden K. Ball, Jr., attorney for the plaintiffs, through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "M. Moszkowski".

Notes regarding Annual Reports filed with the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations

by Marc Moszkowski, Defendant, Pro-Se

In the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations, annual reports filed by profit corporations are required to include specific information about the company's directors. Here are the key dispositions concerning the disclosure of directors:

1. Listing of Directors: Profit corporations must list the names and addresses of all directors serving at the time of filing the annual report.
2. Changes in Directors: If there have been any changes in the board of directors since the last annual report, these changes must be reflected in the current filing. This includes adding new directors and removing those who are no longer serving.
3. Principal Office Address: The principal office address of the corporation must be provided.
4. Registered Agent and Office: The corporation must also provide the name and address of its registered agent and registered office in Florida. The registered agent is the person or entity designated to receive legal documents on behalf of the corporation.
5. Officer Information: While the primary focus is on directors, some annual reports may also require information about the corporation's officers, including the president, secretary, and treasurer.
6. Compliance and Accuracy: The information provided must be accurate and up-to-date. Failure to provide accurate information or to file the annual report on time can result in penalties, including the administrative dissolution of the corporation.
7. Public Record: The information disclosed in the annual report, including the names and addresses of directors, becomes part of the public record.

Hereafter 21 documents filed by Plaintiff's Rustin Howard from 2004 until 2024

ARTICLE V – LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

(a) No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for damages for any breach of duty in such capacity, unless said breach of duty, whether an act or omission, is found by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or by other adjudication to have been committed in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, or that the director personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which the director was not legally entitled, or that the director's acts violated Section 607.0831, Florida Statutes.

(b) Each person who serves as a director of the corporation while this Article V is in effect shall be deemed to be doing so in reliance on the provisions of this Article V, and neither the amendment or repeal of this Article V, nor the adoption of any provision of these Articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this Article V, shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the corporation for, arising out of, based upon, or in connection with any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment, repeal, or adoption of an inconsistent provision. The provisions of this Article V are cumulative and shall be in addition to and independent of any and all other limitations on or eliminations of the liabilities of directors of the corporation, as such, whether such limitations or eliminations arise under or are created by any law, rule, regulation, by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI – INDEMNIFICATION

(a) The corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent now or hereafter provided for or permitted by law each person involved in, or made to threatened to be made a party to, any action, suit, claim or proceeding, arbitration, alternative dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, administrative or legislative hearing or any other actual, threatened, pending or completed proceeding, whether civil or criminal, or whether formal or informal, and including an action by or in the right of the corporation or any other corporation, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether profit or non-profit (any such entity, other than the corporation, being hereinafter referred to as an "Enterprise"), and including appeals therein (and such process being hereinafter referred to as a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person, such person's testator or intestate (i) is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or (ii) while serving as a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving, at the request of the corporation, as a director, officer or in any other capacity, any other Enterprise, against any and all judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred as a result of or in connection with any Proceeding, except as provided in Article VI(b) below.

(b) No indemnification shall be made to or on behalf of any such person if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such person establishes that such person's acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and were material in the cause of action so adjudicated, or that such person personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which such person was not legally entitled. In addition, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any Proceeding initiated by any such person against the corporation, or a director or officer of the corporation, other than to enforce the terms of this Article VI, unless such Proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors. Further, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any settlement or compromise of any Proceeding unless and until the corporation has consented to such settlement or compromise.

(c) Written notice of any Proceeding for which indemnification may be sought by any person shall be given to the corporation as soon as practicable; however, an individual's failure to provide such notice shall not relieve the corporation of its indemnification obligations hereunder, except to the extent that the corporation has been prejudiced by its failure to receive such notice in a timely manner. The corporation shall then be permitted to participate in the defense of any such proceedings or, unless conflict of interest or position exist between such person and the corporation in the conduct of the defense, to assume such defense. In the event that the corporation assumes the defense of any such Proceeding, legal counsel selected by the corporation shall be acceptable to such person. After such assumption, the corporation shall not be liable to such person for any legal or other expenses subsequent incurred unless such expenses have been expressly authorized by the corporation. In the event that the corporation participates in the defense of any such Proceeding, such person may select counsel to represent such person in regard to such Proceeding; however, such person shall cooperate in good faith with any request that common counsel be utilized by the parties to any Proceeding who are similarly situated, unless to do so would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between or among such parties.

(d) The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses granted by or pursuant to this Article VI; (i) shall not limit or exclude, but shall be in addition to, any other rights which may be granted by or pursuant to any statute, by-law, resolution or shareholders or directors or agreement; (ii) shall be deemed to constitute contractual obligations of the Corporation to any director or officer who serves in a capacity referred to in this Article VI at any time while this Article VI is in effect, whether or not thereafter repealed or amended; (iii) shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, spouse, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns of such person. It is the intent of this Article VI to require the corporation to indemnify the persons referred to herein for the aforementioned judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses, including attorney's fees, in each and every circumstance in which such indemnification could lawfully be permitted by express provisions of a certificate of incorporation, and the indemnification required by this Article VI shall not be limited by the absence of an express recital of such circumstances.

(e) In making any determination regarding any person's entitlement to indemnification hereunder, it shall be presumed that such person is entitled to indemnification, and the corporation shall have the burden of proving to the contrary.

(f) The corporation may, with the approval of the Board of Directors, enter into an agreement with any person who is, or is about to become, a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or who is serving, or is about to serve, at the request of the corporation, as a director, officer, or in any other capacity, any other Enterprise; such agreement may provide for the indemnification of such person and advancement of expenses to such person upon terms, and the extent, not prohibited by law. The failure to enter into any such agreement shall not affect or limit the rights of any such person under this Article.

ARTICLE VII – COMMENCEMENT AND TERM OF EXISTENCE

The date for commencement of the corporation's existence shall be December 1, 2004. The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VIII – INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT
