

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT IN AND FOR ESCAMBIA COUNTY, FLORIDA

DEEPGULF, INC. and TOKE OIL AND GAS, S.A.

Plaintiffs,

vs.

MARC M. MOSZKOWSKI

Defendant.

Case No.: 2018 CA 000543

Division: "E"

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY AND MATERIAL POST-FILING DEVELOPMENT

COMES NOW Defendant, Marc Moszkowski, and respectfully notifies the Court of a material development occurring shortly after the filing of his Renewed Motion to Stay Trial and Pretrial Proceedings on May 28, 2025:

1. On May 28, 2025 at 10:07:55 AM (Eastern Time), Defendant filed a Renewed Motion to Stay Trial and Pretrial Proceedings, raising issues of unresolved evidentiary motions, structural fairness, and due process.
2. At 10:31:40 AM (Eastern Time)—less than half an hour later—the Court issued an Order Denying Defendant's Second Motion to

Disqualify, finding it “legally insufficient under Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.330.”

3. The Order does not reference, engage with, or acknowledge the extensive factual record submitted in support of the Motion to Disqualify, including the Supplemental Declaration filed by Defendant. It contains no case citations or analysis of the specific structural issues raised.
4. Although the Order does not directly address the Renewed Motion to Stay, its timing and brevity reinforce Defendant’s core concern: that critical threshold issues—including claims of forged evidence and longstanding procedural imbalance—are not being meaningfully addressed.
5. This development further underscores the necessity of pausing trial and pretrial proceedings until outstanding threshold motions are substantively resolved and a full and fair adjudication is ensured.

Respectfully submitted on this 28th day of May, 2025.
