

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT IN AND FOR ESCAMBIA COUNTY, FLORIDA

DEEPGULF, INC. and TOKE OIL AND GAS, S.A.

Plaintiffs,

vs.

MARC M. MOSZKOWSKI

Defendant.

Case No.: 2018 CA 000543

Division: "E"

NOTICE OF FILING JUDICIAL CORRESPONDENCE

COMES NOW Defendant, Marc Moszkowski, pro se, and respectfully submits this Notice of Filing Judicial Correspondence into the record. On June 30, 2025, Defendant transmitted by email to the Judicial Assistant of the Honorable Chief Judge John L. Miller a formal request for supervisory review concerning procedural and constitutional irregularities in the above-captioned matter.

Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the reply received the same day from Chief Judge Miller, which states in full:

“Dear Mr. Moszkowski:

This will acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated June 30, 2025. As Chief Judge, I do not sit in an appellate capacity and review decisions of other trial judges. If you feel the trial judge has made an error in your case, you have the right to appeal the decision to the First District Court of Appeals.

Respectfully,
John L. Miller”

This correspondence is submitted to preserve the record of Defendant’s attempt to exhaust internal remedies within the First Judicial Circuit, and to place on file the Chief Judge’s official acknowledgment of Defendant’s submission and his response to the effect that supervisory review was unavailable through his office.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of June, 2025.
