CASE NO.: 1D2025-1127

Lower Tribunal Case No.: 2018-CA-000543

MARC M. MOSZKOWSKI,

Petitioner,

v.

DEEPGULF, INC. and TOKE OIL AND GAS, S.A.,

Respondents.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR REHEARING AND/OR CLARIFICATION

Petitioner respectfully submits this supplemental statement in support of his pending Motion for Rehearing and/or Clarification, to ensure that the appellate record accurately reflects the context and severity of his current circumstances.

Petitioner resides in a state of extreme isolation, more than 5,000 miles from the courthouse, suffering from two painful abdominal hernias that render prolonged standing and travel medically inadvisable. He has not left his property since 2019 and cannot do so without abandoning his home and animals, which is both immoral and illegal. His monthly income is approximately $900, and he is subject to asset seizures by both a private party affiliated with Respondents and the tax authority. He cannot pay the $900 court-ordered mediation fee nor afford travel to attend trial or pre-trial hearings in person. He has no family support and has not seen or heard from his only son in over five years.

Of the nearly 90 pleadings he filed in the trial court, more than 70 remain unanswered. Critical motions have been ignored. The risk of a contempt finding now looms for failure to perform tasks that are physically, financially, and legally impossible. Petitioner is simply seeking due process and judicial acknowledgment of his circumstances—nothing more.

Petitioner prays that this Court will consider these facts in evaluating his request for rehearing or clarification.
