

FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF FLORIDA

No. 1D2025-2912

MARC M. MOSZKOWSKI,

Appellant,

v.

DEEPGULF, INC. and TOKE OIL
AND GAS, S.A.,

Appellees.

On appeal from the Circuit Court for Escambia County.
Jan Shackelford, Judge.

September 14, 2026

PER CURIAM.

AFFIRMED. We additionally warn Appellant that his pro se briefs were replete with case citations that either do not exist or fail to support his arguments. For example, Appellant cited to purported cases such as “Jackson v. Household Fin. Corp., 73 So. 3d 325, 38-29 (Fla. 1st DCA 2011)”; “Uniweld Prods., Inc. v. Indus. Polychemical Servs, Inc., 541 So. 2d 1311, 1314 (Fla. 4th DCA 1989)”; “Meyers v. Shoreline Found., Inc., 17 So. 3d 920, 923 (Fla. 4th DCA 2009)”; and “Pino v. Guetzloe, 995 So. 2d 532, 539 (Fla. 5th DCA 2008),” which don’t exist. He cited multiple other cases which exist but address unrelated issues. With this opinion, we put Appellant on notice that his future use of fabricated or unchecked sources in court filings may result in sanctions. See Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.515(d)(2).

OSTERHAUS, C.J., and LEWIS and RAY, JJ., concur.

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.

Marc M. Moszkowski, pro se, Appellant.

Braden K. Ball, Jr., and Michael L. Wyatt of Litvak Beasley Wilson & Ball, LLP, Pensacola, for Appellees.
