Re: Moszkowski v. Rumsey et al., Case No. 26-cv-6015
U.S. District Court, Western District of New York

Dear Clerk of Court:

I respectfully submit the enclosed Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis and Motion for Electronic Filing Privileges in the above-referenced matter.

Plaintiff was informed that this case was administratively closed by the Court solely for non-payment of the filing fee. Plaintiff remains willing to pay the filing fee and was prepared to assume debt on his credit card in order to do so; however, Plaintiff lacks sufficient bank funds to obtain a $405 check or money order, and no method is available by which Plaintiff can transmit credit-card payment remotely. As a result, no available method exists by which Plaintiff can transmit the filing fee.

Plaintiff resides in rural France, where the postal service has been severely disrupted following widely reported cyberattacks on the national postal administration. Plaintiff has not seen regular mail delivery since approximately December 22, and correspondence that the Court indicated had been sent to Plaintiff has not been received. As a result, compliance with physical mail requirements has become impossible despite diligent efforts.

The enclosed filings are submitted promptly and in good faith to resolve the fee issue and to request authorization for electronic filing and notice, so that the case may proceed in an orderly and efficient manner.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that these documents be docketed and forwarded to the Court for consideration.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

Marc Moszkowski,
Plaintiff, Pro Se
